Public art makes you think. It helps you remember. It can make you smile or maybe cry.